

Walk Away

Black Veil Brides

Now our lives have changed, I wish that I could heal
Time has taken love, a darker side revealed
For every lie begins, with what we used to feel Bring my sins under these chains and livin' in pain
Under your tears everythin's gone, is it too late? Walk away! A lonely heart will mend, until we know the truth
But if it stays the same, can we make it through?
A life without the hurt, a life without you Blame my sins under these chains, livin' in pain
Under your tears everythin's gone, is it too late? Walk away!
Everythin's gone, everythin's gone
Blame my sins under these chains, livin' in pain
