

Nancy Whiskey

Shane MacGowan And The Popes

As I went down through Glasgow city
Just to see what I might spy
What should I see but Nancy Whiskey
A playful twinkle in her eyeWhiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Whiskey
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy ohhI bought her, I drank her, I had another
Ran out of money, so I did steal
She ran me ragged, Nancy Whiskey
For seven years, a rollin' wheelWhiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Whiskey
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy ohThe more I held her, the more I loved her
Nancy had her spell on me
All I knew was lovely Nancy
The things I needed I could not seeWhiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Whiskey
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy ohAs I awoke to slake my thirst
As I tried crawling from my bed
I fell down flat, I could not stagger
Nancy had me by the legsWhiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Whiskey
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy OhhCome on landlady, what's the owing Tell me what there is to pay
Fifteen shillings that's the reckoning
Now pay me quickly and go awayWhiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Whiskey
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy oh
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy Whiskey
Whiskey, Whiskey, Nancy oh

Songwriters

SHANE MACGOWANPublished by

Lyrics © DOWNTOWN MUSIC PUBLISHING LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnlrics.com/>