

Trouble

Lindsey Buckingham

I should be saying goodnight
I really shouldn't stay anymore
It's been so long since I've held you
Forgotten what love is for

I should run on the double...
I think I'm in trouble
Trouble
Yes, I think I'm in trouble

Come to me darlin', hold me
Let your honey keep you warm
It's been so long since I've held you
I've forgotten what love is for

I should run on the double...
I think I'm in trouble
I think I'm in trouble
I think I'm in trouble
I think I'm in trouble

Yeah
I should run on the double...
Think I'm in trouble
Trouble
I think I'm in trouble
Think I'm in trouble
