Everything's Everything

Horrorpops

Hey babe
How ya doing tonight?
Are ya feeling alright?
Am I outta your mind?
But, I, I'm not ready to fold
I wanna grow old
With your hands on my heart
So givin' in to this gold [?]
Is not the way I wanna go
Everything's everything
Unwind this night and the tears and it invoked
Erase these words that no one provoked
I don't want to let you go!
Hey babe
What's on your mind?
Please tell me you got that out
About robbing my blind
Of all the time that we spent
And the only one that's my true friend,

Everything's everything
Rewind all the pain that's been spoken
And all the promises that have been broken
I don't want to let you go!
Erase all these clouds of damnation
In your eyes I wanna see salvation
I don't want to let you go!
Rewind this night and the tears it invoked
Erase these words that no one revoked
I don't want to let you go!
I don't wanna let go!
I don't wanna let go!
(Never let you go)
Erase all these clouds of damnation
In your eyes I wanna see salvation
I don't want to let you go!
I don't want to let you go
