

Streets

Avenged Sevenfold

You live your whole life staring at a wall
Your mind goes blank soon or now you will fall
You never learned the things you say, to know now but how
There seems to be a difference, two different types
of kids
The ones who go out and the ones that are taught to live
One groups taught how and the other group is taught why
There's no need to tell you what's in my mind
But in the game of life I'm doing fine
No reason to tell you which way to be
The streets have opened my eyes to see
No reason to tell you what's in my mind
But in the game of life I'm doing fine
No reason to tell you which way to be
The streets have opened my eyes to see
Look what's happening now?
What are the reasons, why and how?
And don't you think it sounds stupid when someone's treated Different 'cause they're not the same as me or you?
You live your whole life staring at a wall
Your mind goes blank sooner, now you will fall
You never learned the things you say, to know now but how
There seems to be a difference, two different types
of kids
The ones who go out and the ones that are taught to live
One groups taught how and the other group is taught why
There's no need to tell you what's in my mind
But in the game of life I'm doing fine
No reason to tell you which way to be
The streets have opened my eyes to see
No reason to tell you what's in my mind
But in the game of life I'm doing fine
No reason to tell you which way to be
The streets have opened my eyes to see
