Electricity

Nathan Hartono

A bright lights
But brighter eyes you have Never looked this beautiful
As you do tonightTime in space
Erased, it waits for you
Look so perfect that I could dieI'm giving you all the love
I'm giving you all
Every second with you feels like magic babyCome on over here
You feel it
When we get near you start to roam
Electricity, don't need it
Both of us are set to explode
Darling I've been driven wild and weak
A simple thing but you make it hard
My throat is dry and I can hardly speak
Even then we should have startI'm giving you all the love
(Come on over)
I'm giving you all
Every second with you feels like magic babyCome on over here
You feel it
When we get near you start to roam
Electricity, don't need it
Both of us are set to explode
I'm giving you all the love
(Come on over)
I'm giving you all the love
(Come on over)
I'm giving you all the love
(Come on over)
I'm giving you all
Every second with you feels like magic babyCome on over here
You feel it
When we get near you start to roam
Electricity, don't need it
Both of us are set to explode(Can you feel it? Can you feel it?)Come on over here
You feel it
When we get near you start to roam
Electricity, don't need it

Both of us are set to explode
