

Jenny

Clifford T. Ward

Jenny, Jenny, I love you Jenny
Jenny, Jenny, I long for you
There's not any one I'd prefer to
Jenny, Jenny, I love you. One day soon, one day soon
One day soon, one day soon. My Jenny, she'll come and meet me
Jenny, Jenny that won't be long
There's not many days to go now
Then my Jenny won't prove me wrong. When I was very far away an' thought that she might not stay
In love with me but she'd write that she's longing for the day . . .
I come home. Jenny, it won't be long now
Then my silly doubts will go
Jenny, Jenny, I love you Jenny
Oh Jenny, I long for you. One day soon, one day soon
One day soon, one day soon. When I was very far away I thought that she might not stay
In love with me but she'd write that she's longing for the day . . .
I come home. Jenny, it won't be long now
Then my silly doubts will go
Jenny, Jenny, I love you Jenny
Oh Jenny, I long for you. One day soon, one day soon
One day soon, one day soon
One day soon, one day soon
One day soon, one day soon.
