

Unearthly Loose Palace

Gehenna

This night is silent, I set the world out of its track until only ashes circle around the moon
Close your eyes, follow me blindly
Goddess let my ice cold semen of gods flow through Your only prayer... Close your eyes and walk my path
I alter the moon's direction
Look around never stop to speak
The star seems to move towards them Sun groaning in ice, so no longer will the sun shine nor the snake leave its shiny skin
O children of the dark will you run with me?
Find the palace
By way a higher bidding Your only prayer be heard Come with me I heard their screams Frightfully as I watched them... die Can you know?
Burn
Can you match me?
Soon
Can you leave?
The sun
Can you feel?
Burn Your only prayer be heard Sun groaning in ice; so no longer will the sun shine
O children of the dark will you walk my path?
