

Broken Box

Queens Of The Stone Age

I've got wine and so do you
Mine came with a cork, I wish yours did too
Everyone just loves you so
Well hurray, now you know where to go In my head you're all brand new
I guess you're really all the same
In my head you're all brand new
Tell your new boy where I came In my head you're all brand new
I just didn't want what you gave
In my head you're all brand new
Go and find yourself another slave There you are
There you are
There you are You're so in love just like Juliette, well, guess what?
That's one thing that you can for- fucking-get
Tears from the sky in pools of pain
Well, baby, tonight I'm gonna go and dance in the rain In my head you're all brand new
I guess you're really all the same
In my head you're all brand new
Tell your new boy where I came In my head you're all brand new
Take that broken pussy elsewhere
In my head you're all brand new
Save it baby, I don't care
