Blueboy

I have often wondered why why there is no love in my life
And I have contemplated selling a limb for a good time
    You stretched to kiss the rain dry lips
Go out and you stretched to kiss the rain dry lips
    Go out and what were you hoping for?
        What were you hoping for?
        What were you hoping for?
    And now you got my everything
        My furniture and my best friend
And you, you think it's so easy pigeonholing my sexuality
    You stretched to kiss the rain dry lips
Go out and you stretched to kiss the rain dry lips
    Go out and what were you hoping for?
        What were you hoping for?
        What were you hoping for?
