

Hush

Coheed and Cambria

Verse 1

Is there something I can do?
Given the mistakes I put you through.
There's no limit to this, just give us what we need.
Should you stop? or should you fall?
Remember this and remember them all.
Your wretched design, and this is all your fault.

Chorus
There going to press you
To leave now, we'll look through
If I don't know better, than to let it go.
Cause there's just no one in this world
Like you, my darling dear
Can I go, and living on this life without you?
Let this be my dieing wish
Please give me more than this
It hurts so, please I paid my price, my penance

Hush

There is no lover trust
Enough to murder us
I am your ghost

Verse 2

Disturbed and ponder these tainted dreams
No questions unanswered in future seems
There are limit to love
No need to feel its sting
You will shatter, you will fall
Rendered helpless, your will dissolves.

You can push on these walls, but help wont hear your call

Chorus
There going to press you
To leave now, we'll look through
If I don't know better, than to let it go.
Cause there's just no one in this world
Like you, my darling dear
Can I go, and bring on this life without you?
Let this be my dieing wish
Please give me more than this
It hurts so, please I paid my price, my penance

Hush

There is no lover trust
Enough to murder us

I am your ghost
Bridge [spoken]
No matter what you tell yourself ladies and gentlemen, there is no end of the rainbow
No greater good or purpose
That you or I Server on this surface.
There is one thing we can all look forward to doing certainly, and that's dieing.
Why waste your time wondering who you are, when there are plenty of things you aren't.
Let's give our egos to rest, and put our hearts to work, shall we?
Chorus
Cause there's just no one in this world
Like you, my darling dear
Can I go, and bring on this life without you?
Let this be my dieing wish
Please give me more than this
It hurts so, please I paid my price my penance
there's just no one in this world
Like you, my darling dear
Can I go, and bring on this life without you?
Let this be my dieing wish
Please give me more than this
It hurts so, please I paid my price my penance
Hush
There is no lover trust
Enough to murder us
I am your ghost
