

She Came Shining

Pavlov's Dog

I used to see light in your eyes
But I don't see it anymore
And all those promises you made to me
I don't need them anymore I used to waste
Hours in bed
And I came to close to follow
Follow you down I used to phone you thousands of times
And now you never seem to call
And all the songs that I've sung to you
I don't sing them anymore I used to waste
Hours in bed
And I came to close to follow
Follow you down
And I'm leaving cause I'm all over you
