

Apex Realized

A Dark Halo

At the edge strike the heart to the core (I feel it).
Merciless I let slip dogs of war (and I feel it) Slowly drown in this cell
I have wrought (I feel it).
Someone else
forgive me
I cannot. Stone by stone I build day by day, until such time as I must pay.
One by one the thoughts fade away to nothing.
I am left with this;
the apex realized. Slowly drown in this cell
I have wrought (I feel it).
Someone else forgive me
I cannot.
