

Spiral Staircase

Supersister

when walking through the doubtful yet beautiful landscape the spiral staircase crossed my way. it was very tempting and so I climbed it.
once at the top the steps led down again and so did I.
when I was on the earth again, a sudden noise attracted my attention glooble globle glap blap blap
glooble globle glap blap blap
a little creature came up the steps he came up to me and he introduced himself yes this might seem very awkward but he had a very strange name his name was... well you could never guess it.
he told me "I am the schizophrenic spiral staircase gnome." *gnome noises*
he said "glad to meet you" the air was quiet and dry and he asked me
"what about a cup of tea"
we went up the steps once again 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 and so on. when we came at the top the 226 step
the tea tasted delicious.
and I drank several cups of it.
when we finished I left the place when climbing down this thought appeared to me
I thought... lucky... lucky me... lucky me.... lucky me.
