

Show Me What You Got

G.R.L.

Ay, ay You wanna call me baby
You wanna earn my love
You wanna give me everything
That I've been dreaming of
You're dancing all up on me
Expecting something more
But shouldn't I know who you are
If I'm gonna be yours? Hey boy tell me
If you'll be there when I need you
Hey boy tell me
Why should I just believe you?
Don't get me wrong, I'm into you
But I'm just not that girl
So don't just tell me
But you show me what you're made of Ay
If you wanna be with me
Ay
Show me what you go-ot
Ay
Go ahead and let me see
Ay
Show me what you go-ot You're trying to get it popping
You're trying to change my mind
You're trying to take me home tonight
But you should take your time
Maybe I'm old fashion
Or maybe you're too fresh
'Cause you could be a billionaire
But that won't get you this Hey boy tell me
If you'll be there when I need you
Hey boy tell me
Well why should I just believe you?
Don't get me wrong, I'm into you
But I'm just not that girl
So don't just tell me
But you show me what you're made of Ay
If you wanna be with me
Ay
Show me what you go-ot

Ay
Go ahead and let me see
Ay
Show me what you gotIn case you didn't notice
I think you're really fly
But, baby, show me what you got
What you got insideHey, boy, tell me
If you'll be there when I need you
Hey, boy, tell me
Why should I just believe you?
Don't get me wrong, I'm into you
But I'm just not that girl
So don't just tell me,
But you show me what you're made ofAy
Ay
Ay
Ay
Show me what you go-otAy
Ay
Ay
Go ahead and let me see
Ay
