

Regrets

ZyniC

I'd like to tell you a sad tale
It's the story of my life
Things were clear when hope is gone
Regret remains Far too found, far too lost
Star-crossed lovers hold the key
Behind the door of chance may lie
The broken dreams Tonight, tonight
Without you next to me
Tonight, tonight
Without you next to me
Tonight, tonight
Regrets may come to pass
To me, I find they tend to stay
Whenever love is in my grasp
It seems to always slip away I haven't lived since you've been gone
Things may never be the same
But if I try for help once more
My life may change Tonight, tonight
Without you next to me
Tonight, tonight
Without you next to me
Tonight, tonight
It's cold outside, it's cold inside
It's cold outside, it's cold inside It's cold outside, it's cold inside
It's cold outside, it's cold inside
