

Gone Girl (feat. Rdgldgrn)

Jallal

[RDGLDGRN]
You so gone girl
You into them new thangs
You so gone girl
You into them new thangs
You so gone[JALLAL]
Summertime vibes, we done roll one
We can get back to the motions
She been telling lies ya I know what's up
She sold her soul for the low life like gone girl
She bumping them new thangs so gone girl
We used to have a true thang
I've been gone girl, yeah
I'm on to better new thangs
She was like winter in summer time
Sad we had to fight and break our ties
She broke like the levees of New Orleans
You can never know where we come from
You can never know where we came from
It feels as sweet as freedom[RDGLDGRN]
You so gone girl
You into them new thangs
You so gone girl
You into them new thangs
You so gone[GRN]
Never had a story, nah, nah, no, no
Yeah See now
She wept Tell her story
I can tell a story, a story
Bout a girl who be looking to lose
I can tell a story, a story
'Cause she try on anything new
See you in the deep end girl
If you drowning juss take my arm
See me you reaching girl
You can tell what you know bout love
I don't know, I don't never reach out
'Cause if I tell you bout yourself, you gonna freak out
I was giving you advice that you needed

But you would tell me you were dying of me preaching
