

Giant

Melissa Etheridge

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

You tried to hold us down
You tried to hold us back
You tried to make us wrong
You tried to make us crack You wanted to see us cry
You wanted to see us leave
You didn't count on the tide
You didn't count on the pride
You didn't count on me I am a giant
And you will not make me fall
And you will not make me crawl
I am a giant
And I'm not alone
Winds of change have blown
And the walls come tumbling down And I've learned from my mistakes
Pick myself up of the floor
I have learned just what it takes
Now I am stronger than before And we are standing side by side
We are determined now to win
We have come too far
And we've got the scares
And we are never going back into the shadows again I am a giant
And you will not make me fall
And you will not make me crawl
I am a giant
And I'm not alone
Winds of change have blown
And the walls come tumbling down I am a giant
I am a giant, yeah
Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey
My my
Hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey, hey
My my

I am a giant
I am a giant
My my
My myWinds of change have blown
Winds of change have blown
And I'm not alone
Winds of change have blown
And the walls come tumbling down
