

Beyond The Pale

Procol Harum

Who will search for holy grail?
Past the edge beyond the veil
Who will come beyond the light?
Far from reach beyond all sight Who will share this bitter cup?
Let the wild dogs tear them up
Let the cold winds blow them down
Drive them deep beneath the ground Who will live in darkest night?
Dankest gloom and quietest quiet
Far from any human sound
Buried deep beneath the ground Who will search for treasure trove?
Scour the seas and scale the globe
Past the peaks beyond the heights
Far most reaches furthest sights Who will share this bitter cup?
Let the wild dogs tear them up
Let the cold winds blow them down
Drive them deep beneath the ground Who will share this bitter cup?
Let the wild dogs tear them up
Let the cold winds blow them down
Drive them deep beneath the ground
