

Broken Knees

Skrape

My eyes seem to see
What others never see
Something's building inside me
But it's not for real You hate, rape me Some way is how
My resurrection's now
So unable to breathe
With broken knees No cause for a scene
'Cause no one's knees are clean
Such a killer inside me
I'll come for you You hate, rape me
You hate, rape me Some way is how
My resurrection's now
So unable to breathe
With broken knees Don't tell me I can't hate
You hate, rape me
You hate, rape me I'll never hurry, I'll never worry
I walk on broken knees
