

Take Care

Jennifer Lopez

You know, you know
You know that I love ya, I love ya (yeah)
You know, you know
You know that I need ya, I need ya You know, you know
You know that I love ya, I love ya
You know, you know
You know that I need ya, I need ya I need my baby like I need air
I need air, I need air
I need my baby 'cause he take me there
Take me there, take me there
The only thing my baby said, baby what you want
What you want want want yeah you gimme what I want
Yeah yeah yeah, my baby take care care yeah You know, you know
You know that I love ya, I love ya
You know, you know
You know that I need ya, I need ya 'Cause you are my man you're my friend
You are my everything I need
Everything I need, everything I need
And I love you, I love you
I really really love you My baby put it down in a bed bed bed
In a bed bed bed, in a bed bed bed
My baby hit the nail on the head head head
On the head head head, on the head head head
My baby do his thing, he's so good good good
Oh so good good good yeah good good good
Yeah yeah yeah my baby take care, care, yeah You know, you know
You know that I love ya, I love ya
You know, you know
You know that I need ya, I need ya 'Cause you are my man you're my friend
You are my everything I need
Everything I need, everything I need
And I love you, I love you
I really really love you I-I-I if you love your baby let me hear you say
I-I-I if you need your baby let me hear you say
'Cause your my man your my friend you are my everything I need
Everything I need everything I need
And I love you I love you I really really love you I need air I need air I need air
Take me there take me there take me there
I need air I need air I need air

And I love you I love you I really really love you You know, you know
You know that I love ya, I love ya
You know, you know
You know that I need ya, I need ya 'Cause you are my man you're my friend
You are my everything I need
Everything I need, everything I need
And I love you, I love you
I really really love you You know, you know
You know that I love ya, I love ya
You know, you know
You know that I need ya, I need ya 'Cause you are my man you're my friend
You are my everything I need
Everything I need, everything I need
And I love you, I love you
I really really love you
