The Deadly Kiss

U.S. Bombs

billy boy he had the boss sound yesterday what kissed you deadly was the mainstream a used kleenex a bloody kotex paradise in the west was yer english dream 100 punks could never rule without caroline coon prime of kenny silvers disapeared in wild youth derwood mark laff empire aftermath billy danced alone to a different tune used to listen to you all we wants the truth more yer records sold the more ya lied king chopper shopped the top of pops why are you alive die rocker rebel biker yell of 1983 so untouchable in the disco scene billy got lost sybercity rock null & voids the generation of the 70s

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/