

Someone Like You

Falls

Don't feel sad that I don't love you

I don't love anyone

Don't feel sad that I don't want you

I don't want anyone

Don't be blue that I can't hear you

I can't hear anyone

Don't be sad that I can't see you

I can't see anyone

I've been waiting so long to lose someone like you

I've been waiting so long to lose someone like you

I've been waiting so long

Don't feel bad when I don't call you

I don't call anyone

Don't expect that I won't leave you

'Cause I leave everyone

And I know it's getting harder to stay

And I know it's getting weird

And if there's one thing I can honestly say

I've been waiting so long to lose someone like you

I've been waiting so long to lose someone like you

I've been waiting so long
