

Another Night Alone

Nothing Ever Stays

Alone again tonight
In this empty time
The sound in my head
The sight leaves me
Leaves me blind
I'll write a million words
I'll sing until it hurts
How far could this be
Until it's seen?
How long will I let this go?
I can't stand to spend
Another night alone
Alone
I stare at the empty walls
I speak, no one hears
I make every excuse
And blame my fears
How long will I let this go?
I can't stand to spend

Another night alone
Alone, alone, alone
And all these shadows come to rest
In my head
And I can't see you and I
I can't hear the things you said
There is a secret place
You'll find a bloodstained fence
It's there, the future speaks
And she spoke to me
How long will I let this go?
I can't stand to spend
Another night, another night alone
Alone, alone, alone
Not another night alone
Alone, another night alone
Alone
