Baby BlueYea, Baby Blue whoa Back in '96
the old boy was fresh out the pit the old girl was pulling credit card scam licks her girlfriend Khaji bout me a Tupac tape taught me how to rap listening to NWA moved with my daddy when i got to middle school wasn't used to the new house rules so we bumped heads but we end up cool taught me how to hustle fresh grand shark pool never played outside when i was coming up always worried about the robbers trying to throw me in the truck so i had to hit girls after school under the stairwell walking home with that stright pudoocy smell sometime i made it some days in the park used to sex a lot in the parking lot Walmart even Kmart used to hit that girl in every parking lot now it's year 2000
i'm about 16
only thing on my mind is getting green on to the first time your boy hit the by hard nobody move

give me what you got meanwhile i'm king of Darrel City High breaking all the rules watching time go by me and Brisco at lunch spitting rhymes never stood in one lunch line
