Wanderer

Unholy

In craving for the second sight I possess the privilege of pain perpetual motion of perpetual unrest never ending search for the innermost ringrealms where you're a dweller are sacredness beyond belief ecstasy of purifying flame once mortal flesh now divine"worship me you loathsome ones untouchable is the unholy one wolflike vigour of bearsome mind ecstasy beyond your serpent tongues"Blind men of saturated age praise tradition of fraudulent faith I never shook the wolf off me never forsake the lion withinIn craving for the second sight I possess the privilege of pain
once mortal flesh now divineIt's the ring of the Lupus and I'm within howling with brother kyon to Sirius and beyond Nile drawn in the velvet of skies in the sign of DragonWe'll all pass thru' the gate on the golden ring of Saturn On a journey to a Mother star to the shores of primeval sea to the water that once came to be
