Whatever Gets You Through The Day

Lighthouse Family

When all your hope has gone
And everything you love has gone away
Whatever gets you through the day
That's your way'Cause I'd been sitting on the side
Watching the tide drifting away
Whatever gets you through the day
That's your way'Cause I don't think I'm brave enough
To admit I'm breaking up
And when the pain just tears you up
The only thing you need is loveSo just get yourself back on it
Another day is gonna come
Keep on praying for it
AahIt's all just people talking
Does it really matter what they say?
Whatever gets you through the day
That's your way'Cause I don't care who's right sometimes
I wish they'd all just go away
Whatever gets you through the day
That's your wayI think I've been here long enough
To know what things are really worth
And I can see through all that stuff
'Cause all you really need is loveSo just get yourself back on it
Another day is gonna come
Keep on praying for it
AahSo just get yourself back on it
Another day is gonna come
Keep on praying for it
AahSwitch yourself back on it
Get yourself back on it
Switch yourself back on it
Get yourself back on itI think I've been here long enough
To know what things are really worth
And I can see through all that stuff
'Cause all you really need is loveSo just get yourself back on it
Another day is gonna come
Keep on praying for it
AahSo just get yourself back on it
Another day is gonna come
Keep on praying for it

AahWhatever gets you through the day
Whatever gets you through the day
Whatever gets you through the day
