Kiss the Wake

Criteria

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

my condition waits to deteriorate just awaken the wave of time like a car in the sun its heat can't escape until it is driven awaywere not here to understand it here on the blade of grass your futures limitless trial murder comes in ocean's vast but the truth is you never try (suddenly suddenly)
but it don't mean you take your own life seriouslybut if there's something you hate i wanna take it away
oh it is shame
you do what they say
your selfless and vague when your cold heart heats you up and it lifts you holds youbut if theres something you hate
i wanna take it away
up and it lifts you holds youso if theres something you hate im gunna take it awaywere not here to understand it here on the blade of grass
(suddenly suddenly)
but it don't mean you take your own life seriously
