

Everything I'm Not

The Veronicas

oh no don't go changing that's what you told me from the start thought you were something different that's when it all just fell apart like you're so perfect and i can't measure up well i'm not perfect just all messed up

CHORUS

cause i was losing myself to somebody else but now i see
i don't wanna pretend so this is the end of you and me cause that girl that you want she was tearing us apart cause she's everything, everything i'm not it's not like i need somebody telling me where i should go at night don't worry you'll find somebody, someone to tell how to live their life like you're so perfect and no one measures up well you're not perfect just all messed up hey wait a minute because of you i never knew all the things that i had hey don't you get it i'm not going anywhere with you tonight cause this is my life

but now i see
i don't wanna pretend cause this is the end of you and me
