Plus d'hiver

Yann Tiersen

See the wind,
there will not be any more of winter if our fronts
I believe it is to [tombier].In cities, of sales get organized from mountains of pullovers.In cities, spaces are going to hurry up and invest, and invest in wool [devalu]Then [voilil] will not have there any more of winter and why, it is more lucrative they think.In cities, people fall asleep a bit under a sun of feathers.In cities, spaces are going to hurry up
and always invest,
in wool [devalu]
