Gentle

Lovebirds

This is not the time to wonder why
Just let the heart and mind be still for just some time
This is the time for the rest
Just let it go, you know it's for the bestIf you're fragile and you're delicate
Take my hand but be gentle with me, please
Let the river flow, washing over me for a while
But be gentle with me, please
Be gentle with me, pleaseThis is not the time to compromise
If you're feeling it too then you've realized
This is the time for a change
Yes, you know it's true, deep down within youOh, if you're fragile and you're delicate
Take my hand but be gentle with me, please
Let the river flow, washing over me for a while
But be gentle with me, please
Be gentle with me, pleaseIf you're fragile and you're delicate
Take my hand but be gentle with me, please
Let the river flow, washing over me for a while
But be gentle with me, please
Be gentle with me, please
Be gentle with me, please
Be gentle with me, please
