

Oleander

Burning Image

You take whatever we give you
We are indebted to you
More money, more fish to skin
Just keep on reading that shit we spew. We gather at Oleander
You shower us with your love
More wine, more drugs than you can imagine
Don't thank me, it's all for fun. This is our sanctuary
You're making our dreams come true
Your lives are ordinary
We take whatever we want from you. This is just life's illusion
You'd better get used to it
Less money, more bills to pay for
It's something that I won't do.
