

Modern Chemistry

Motion City Soundtrack

I believe in medication and I believe in therapy
And I believe in crystal light
'Cause I believe in me yeah
It's so upliftingFuck yeah
I barely have motivation
They say I suffer from a lack of serotonin synapses
They happen tooInfrequently for me to be functioning properly
I took the pills I took the advice the panic stopped
But I'm still not right
Racing thoughts and wasted timeIt's the same old story-line
This is my nursery rhyme and it goes:
I believe in medication and I believe in therapy
And I believe in crystal light'Cause I believe in me yeah
It's so uplifting
Fuck yeah
I'm barely off the medicationAnd now the walls are closing in again
I can't breathe and I can't bleed
Will you be my alibi?
Tell them that I truly tried to give in?
