

Healing Waters

Starship

When all the hope is gone, I'll be there to keep you strong
I will lay your body down in healing waters
Turn this darkness into light, help you stand, I'll help you fight
But don't ever let them break your spirit And have faith, (A light will shine on you) and someday a light will shine on you
Then I will lay your body down in healing waters
I will lead you down to healing waters When you cry out to the moon, I'll be there beside you
I won't let these shadows reach into your heart
Raise up the spirit of kings, let the bells of freedom ring
Don't ever let them put out this fire And have faith, (A light will shine on you) and someday a light will shine on you
Then I will lay your body down in healing waters
And have faith, (Oh have faith) and someday the sun will break on through Then I will lay your body down in healing waters All your troubles, oh they will be over Don't ever let them break your spirit And have faith, (Oh have faith) and someday a light will shine on you
And I will lay your body down in healing waters
And have faith, and someday the sun will break on through
And I will lay your body down in healing waters
I will walk you down to healing waters All your troubles, they will be over, and we'll never ever, won't give up (Lay your body down, lay your body down)
Healing waters (Lay your body down, lay your body down)
Healing waters (Lay your body down, lay your body down)
Healing waters (Lay your body down)
Healing waters (Lay your body down)
Healing waters (Lay your body down)
