

2012

Therion

The final day, the beginning of the new
The feathered serpent
Is passing through the gate
And (the) winter solstice
(Is) the Door of Kukulcan
The wheel of time is the spinner of the fates
(The) Haab and Tzolking
Interacting like two wheels
And Quetzalcoatl (is) arriving on his ship
The mayan calender says 2012
It is the end
A prophecy
2012

The Chilam Balam he told his prophecies
About the serpent (and) the end of our age
The final day (is) the beginning of the new
The Morning Star is the saviour of the world
He's been in exile, it's time for his return
Lod Quetzalcoatl (is) arriving on his ship
The mayan calendar says 2012
It is the end

Lords of the nights - birds of the days
Nine and thirteen like the hours
Quetzalcoatl - Lord of Venus
Bring us through the end of ages
Sun in the winder and stars in the night
(He's) back from the exile this day
A prophecy
2012

Lords of the nights - birds of the days
Nine and thirteen like the hours
Quetzalcoatl - Lord of Venus
Bring us through the end of ages
