Run, Pig, Run

Queens Of The Stone Age

When I was young
We used to play the game of hide and seek
Someone go hide, I count to ten
You probably never played
Instead you talk a game of sheep
A skill you almost do perfect
Run, pig, run
Here I come
I am no saint and make no claims
To being in the right

It's just for now, I am wrong-less
You're probably wondering
With what to do, this has with you
I wanna play the game you missed
Run, pig, run
Here I come
There is no safe place
There is no safe place
There is no safe place to hide
