

2 Into 1

Army of Me

I know it sounds foolish, but I live in hope
That one day all of my friends could be home
For now you are broken, it feels so assured
Wherever we are, we can't go back where we were And I wanna fly, straight into the sun
I wanna burn the 2 into 1 I know it sounds foolish, but I'm still in love
Although I surrendered I'm not givin' up
So if there is somethin' that's makin' you stay
I'm standing right here, I won't walk away And I wanna fly, straight into the sun
I wanna burn the 2 into 1 And I've forgiven you
It's all that I can do
It's seems you have no choice
When you love someone I want you to know, you whiling in snow
I want you to see, to forgive is to breathe
And it's something
It's something you need I'll forget what you've done
I wanna burn, the 2 into 1, 2 into, 2 into 1 I know it sounds foolish, but I'm still in love
I know it sounds foolish, I'm not givin' up
