

Brite Lites

Lana Del Rey

I look for you in magazines
I look for you in magazines
I look for you in magazines
I'm taking off my wedding ringI gave you everything
I gave you everythingGive me the bright lights
Give me the bright lights
Give me the bright lightsGive me the bright lights
Give me the bright lights
Give me the bright lightsI'm going back to Arbor Dean
I'm going back to Arbor Dean
I'm going back to Arbor Dean
Where when I was a beauty queenIt wasn't anything
It wasn't anythingGive me the bright lights
Give me the bright lights
Give me the bright lightsGive me the bright lights
Give me the bright lights
Give me the bright lightsI'm waving on the silver screen
I'm waving on the silver screen
I'm waving on the trampoline
I'm waving on the silver screenThe film is fading, look at me
The film is fading, look at me
The film is fading, look at me
The film is fading, look at me, look at meGive me the bright lights
Give me the bright lights
Give me the bright lightsGive me the bright lights
Give me the bright lights
Give me the bright lightsGive me the bright lights
Give me the bright lights
Give me the bright lightsGive me the bright lights
Give me the bright lights
