I See the Want to In Your Eyes

Conway Twitty

Verse 1:
I see the sparklin? little diamond on your hand
It?s plain to see that you already got a man
I can tell you?re not about to fall for any of my lies
I see the want to in your eyes

Verse 2:
Deep in your smile there?s a quiet, soft desire
Like the embers of a once raging fire
You know I could light that fire again, you know it isn?t wise
I see the want to in your eyes

Bridge:
How strong?s a band of gold?
Is it strong enough to hold?
When a love has grow cold,
And a woman wants a love sweet and warm?

Verse 3:
How many women just like you have silent schemes?
How many men like me do they sleep with in their dreams?
You can stay of your can go and although I sympathize
I still see the want to in your eyes
I see the want to in your eyes
