

Leavin' A Lonely Town

Easton Corbin

Mama's standin' at the old screen door
With a dish rag in her hand
Cryin' like I never seen her cry before
Like she don't understand why
I'm leavin' a lonely town
I'm leavin' a lonely town
My old man, he's workin' on his truck
Ain't never had much to say
Just shakes my hand and wishes me luck
And watches me walk away, yeah
I'm leavin' a lonely town
I'm leavin' a lonely town
Drivin' one last time down Main Street
Past her caf
