

Elvis

These New Puritans

Elvis, I wasn't talking about that king or hair-dos
Elvis, I wasn't talking about that king, it's confusing
Now, we're being watched my experts, we're being
I try to blurt it out, I can't find the words

We're all waiting or forever made
If there is a God then please take me up

Now, we're being watched my experts
And what will happen next we hold the clues
Now, I'm gonna tell you my secrets, I'm gone
I try to blurt it out but I can't find the words
I try to blurt it out but I can't find the words

0800

(Oh, eight hundred)
