Crazy

Icehouse

I've got a pocket full of holes
Head in the clouds the king of fools
You've got a ribbon of rainbows
The sun in your eyes burning throughCould be I'm happy and sad
Could be I'm losing my head over youWell, you've gotta be crazy, baby
To want a guy like me, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazySo if I'm dreaming don't wake me tonight
If this is all wrong I don't want it right
'Cause you're the one sure thing
When I get lost in the game once againHey, I'm a lucky guy
Without a reason and I don't understandWell, you've gotta be crazy, baby
To want a guy like me, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazyWell, there must be some kind of mistake
To give your heart away, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazyI've got a pocket full of holes
Head in the clouds the king of fools
You've got a ribbon of rainbows
The sun in your eyes burning throughCould be I'm happy and sad
Could be I'm losing my head over youWell, you've gotta be crazy, baby
To want a guy like me, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazyWell, there must be some kind of mistake
To give your heart away, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazyWell, you've gotta be crazy, baby
To want a guy like me, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazyWell, there must be some kind of mistake
To give your heart away, yeah
You've gotta be out of your mind, crazyWell you've gotta be crazy baby
To want a guy like me, yeah
You've gotta be crazy, baby
