Sun Glass

Fucked Up

Slow motion streaks of colour scream and bloom.
Rejuvenations ocean spume perfume.
Amber statues, precious baby rubies.
Forever sacred diamond eyes look through me.
Rocks in the sky frozen in time.
Paper hearts to set alight.
Scissors cut the old flame from the fire.
A swirling technicolour cluster throbs.
Fleeting passions feed a stoned mob.
Never touch or look directly at her.
Covet the blinding light of cynosure.
Waves of flesh and honey kiss.
Roman bodies, artifice.
Living slow, the glory of the boy.
Sacred young, feel the sun, vermillion.
Avert your gaze, be afraid, can't look away.
Torrid hearts, rapturous and free.
Float inside the neon soul and see.
The air is sweet with ignorance and idol.
A stinking ripened youth unbridled.
Glowing trinkets, golden teeth.
Pupils wide and vacant smiles.
Smoking halo put them back to sleep.
We all get replaced, retconned and upstaged, life turns a page.
When we turn away, the kids just aren't the same, new ways to vibrate, I can't hear it, II can't relate, I can't change again.
Sacred young, feel the sun, vermillion.
Avert your gaze, be afraid, can't look away.
Sacred young, feel the sun, vermillion.
Avert your gaze, be afraid, can't look away.
