

Ok, Time For Plan B

Enter Shikari

Let this battle commence one last time
And I hope for your sake, that your on our side
Let this battle commence one last time
And I hope for your sake, that your on our side

Look what you've done to your self
Yea you've lost the will to do whats right again
Look what you've done to yourself
Hunger to discover that your not here

The time has come to think again
Look what you've done to yourself

OK, time for plan B
This means war

Everyone freezes and waits for the earth to move
Everyone freezes and waits for the ground to shake

Let's make the earth move
Let's make the ground shake
