

The Easiest Thing

Vanessa Williams

Suddenly there's meaning
To all my hopin' and dreamin'
And a joy I have never felt before
Umm, suddenly there's a reason
Something I can believe in
And finally I know what my heart is for
This is the easiest thing to do
Yes the easiest thing to do
It's as simple and as natural
As breathing out and breathing in
Yes the easiest thing is lovin' you
Suddenly I'm weightless
Feel I could fly or could walk on
With my feet never touching the ground
Umm, and I know I'm not crazy
And now I know I'm not sleeping
No the searching is over and baby I've found
That this is the easiest thing to do
It's the easiest thing to do
It's as simple and as natural
As breathing out and breathing in
Yes the easiest thing is lovin' you
Suddenly the sadness is gone
And I don't have to tell myself
To struggle through
To carry on
This is the easiest thing to do
It's the easiest thing to do
It's as simple and as natural
As breathing out and breathing in
Yes the easiest thing is lovin' you
Yes the easiest thing is lovin' you
Yes the easiest thing is lovin' you
