

Heir Apparent

Camera

To listen is wise
Close your eyes
Sincerity has suited you well
You save lives
Just not mine
The struggle is what keeps you alive

This brave, ridiculous place
All crazy from your whiplash and your doubtful bouts of rage.
So you piss off Ready or not repeat your broken mantra that you're 'doing it for God'
You trace
Outline graves of a crazy burning question of an issue left too late.
So you, slip fall
fail to answer the call of the many marching millions that are shedding tears of pain.

You take your time out of place
To find memories changed
I find your questions of touch
Afraid you like it too much
Ah haaa ohhhh oh
Ah haaa ohhhh oh
Ah haaa ohhhh oh

To listen is wise
Obey your fucking God
