

Hole

Jasmine Cain

I haven't had a dream in so long
And every day gets a little worse
Leave it to me to make a right so wrong
And turn a blessing into a curse
'Cause I'm a loser, a liar, a fool on fire
A sinner that's sick in the soul
I'm the only thing that grows the more that you take away
Every day, I feel more like a hole
I feel like a question with no answers
I keep my demons deep within
There is no cure for this disaster
You burn like the acid under my skin
'Cause I'm a loser, a liar, a fool on fire
A sinner that's sick in the soul
I'm the only thing that grows the more that you take away
Every day, I feel more like a hole
(More like a hole)
I'm a loser, a liar, a fool on fire
A sinner that's sick in the soul
I'm the only thing that grows the more that you take away
Every day, everyday, I feel more like a hole
I'm a loser, a liar, a fool on fire
A sinner that's sick in the soul
I'm the only thing that grows the more that you take away
Every day, I feel more like a hole
(More like a hole)
(More like a hole)
(A hole)
