

All That I Am

Deborah Allen

I can be tough, I can be tender
Strong as a saint, weak as a sinner
When I'm in your arms I'm so complete
You bring out what's inside of me
A woman with a mind, body with a soul
A heart full of love, won't let go
I love the way you understand
All that I am
I'm a member of the modern world
Sometimes I'm still an old fashioned girl
Make me laugh, let me cry
I finally found a man who's not afraid to try
A woman with a mind, body with a soul
A heart full of love, won't let go
I love the way you understand
A woman with a mind, body with a soul
A heart full of love, won't let go
I love the way you understand
All that I am
Hold on as long as I can
And keep loving you with all that I am
A woman with a mind, body with a soul
A heart full of love
(Of love)
A woman with a mind, body with a soul
A heart full of love, won't let go
I love the way you understand
All that I am
All that I am
All that I am
(A woman with a mind, body with a soul)
All that I am
(A heart full of love, won't let go)
All that I am
(A woman with a mind, body with a soul)
