Argyle Park

Your doom awaits youSelfish ones who think this world revolves for them
Around their games and illusions
They give nothing but their hands are always out to take
I wish you misery now, desolationCast down, defeated, never to rise
Cast down, defeated, never to rise again
Cast down, defeated, never to rise
Cast down, defeated, never to rise againWallow in your hypocrisy
You want respect but you'll never earn it
Condemned to your heresy
You want respect but you'll never earn itYour life is a fantasy
You want respect but you'll never earn it
Now you live out your blasphemy
You want respect but you haven't done a thing to earn itI'll be your doomsayer
Motherfucker
Your doom awaits youCast down, defeated, never to rise
Cast down, defeated, never to rise again
Cast down, defeated, never to rise
Cast down, defeated, never to rise againWallow in your hypocrisy
You want respect but you'll never earn it
Condemned to your heresy
You want respect but you'll never earn itYour life is a fantasy
You want respect but you'll never earn it
Now you live out your blasphemy
You want respect but you haven't done shit to earn itYour doom awaits you
