

Dirty Punk

The Clash

Gonna be a dirty punk
Gonna rock your neighborhood
Do the sound of rebel funk
Turn it up loud like it should I could hear your momma scream
She's gonna waste herself away
When your daddy smashed that TV screen
I understand what he had to say I'm going to get me a big, big, big, big, big car
Then I'm gonna drive, drive, drive
I'm gonna drive so far up your boulevard
Up your boulevard, so far up your boulevard Gonna be a dirty punk
While my brother dresses clean
He used to be the local hunk
The girls all ride in my machine [unverified] How 'bout the time, I made him drunk
And he insult my brotherhood
I shout out, I am a dirty punk
Gonna rock your neighborhood I'm going to get a big, big, big, big, big car
Then I'm gonna drive, drive, drive
I'm gonna drive so far up your boulevard
Up your boulevard, So far up your boulevard Gonna get a big, big, big, go faster
Then I'm gonna go, big, let's go to [unverified]
Up your boulevard, up your boulevard
Go so far up your boulevard Gonna drive my big, big, big, big, big car
Then I'm gonna drive, drive, drive
I'm gonna drive so far up your boulevard
Up your boulevard, so far up your boulevard
